27. Technology upgradation:

As part of the initiative of PIMR towards technology upgradation, the following have been introduced:

- € Interactive White Boards: Two White Boards costing over 1.5 Lakhs each have been purchased from New Vision Co. through Veltronics Ltd., Indore.
- € New Computer laboratory: The Computer Lab has been extended through the addition of the new laboratory with 30 computers.
- € Video Conferencing Facility: The Video Conferencing Facility has been installed in the Institute using a Static IP address and Polycom Camera.
- € Upgradation of the Bandwidth of the Internet: The Institute has upgraded its Internet Bandwidth configuration from (2 mbps broadband + 1 mbps leased line) to (2 mbps broadband + 2 mbps leased line).

28. Computer and internet access and training to teachers and students:

PIMR Computer Lab is well equipped with computing resources to cater to the technological needs of the Institute. The campus of the Institute is Wi-Fi enabled and the Computer Lab has 270 terminals. To meet the printing needs of the members of the PIMR fraternity, the Lab has 12 printers which include Laser, inkjet and dot matrix printers. Besides these, the Lab is also equipped with scanner, LCD projectors and CD writers.

LCD/DLP projectors are also mounted in all the classes. To cope up with interrupting power, the technological infrastructure at PIMR is backed up by 15 KVA UPS, Digital Line Conditioners, CVTs and a powerful 64 KVA generator. The Lab is available to the students for more than 12 hours a day. The Institute has also provided Laptops to its faculty members. To meet the communication needs of various members of PIMR fraternity, the Institute has an Electronic Private Branch Exchange (EPBX) with 99 lines scalable to meet the increasing demand.

Training programmes under the aegis of Academic Forum were organized in 2009-10 for imparting training to the Faculty on the use of Interactive White Board. Faculty and Students were also provided training on the use and access to EBSCO Database and other relevant Softwares.

29. Financial aid to students:

36. Activities of the Guidance and Counselling unit:

The activities of the guidance and counseling units were carried out under the auspices of the Competency Assessment Centre (CAC). The CAC established in the Institute in the year 1998 has more than 120 standardised research scales to measure various personality and behavioural aspects. The CAC helps in scientifically assessing the students and helps them to review their strength and weaknesses.

During the academic year 2009-10, the CAC assessed a total of 105 students from various MBA programs of the Institute. The student Interpersonal Relational Skills were measured through FIRO-B, i.e., Fundamental Interpersonal Relation Oriented Behaviour. Their personality dimension, i.e., their needs and aspiration were measured through projective technique. For the purpose, Thematic Apperception Test has been conducted. Students, who participated in the program were provided feedback by the counselor in person.

Some photographs of the event are enclosed herewith:
